Truth is Stranger than Fiction!

R. C. HENRY

Has just received per steamers Lightfoot, St. Louis Onk & Wave, a large and splendid assortment of

Dry Goods and Groceries, comprising every article conducive to the interest and comfort of a thriving people, all of which is submitted to the inspection of the public, with a promise of selling at a very small advance, and at prices far more reasonable than heretofore exhibited by any house in Warsaw, whether they sell at cost, or sell lower than others do, that promise to sell at cost. My motto being "Cheap for Cash and quick Sales," will give me an advantage over my neighbors, not likely to be attained by others. My supplies are constantly arriving, and will continue at intervals through the entire season.

My constant aim being to promote the interests of the people generally, and save them of an arduous and laborious trip to the Missouri river, for their supplies; in view of this, I have made my arrangements to furnish the entire South-west with their

in exchange for the products of the country, and will be most happy, from this time forward, if all the merchants, en route to Boonville, would give me a call and examine my stock thoroughly.
